

Gorilla Technology Secures Two Major Wins in Taiwan, Advancing Airport Security and National Law Enforcement Capabilities

September 3, 2024

LONDON, September 03, 2024 (NewsFile Corp.) – Gorilla Technology Group Inc. (“Gorilla” or the “Company”) (NASDAQ: GRRR), today announced two significant project wins in Taiwan, further solidifying its role as a leader in AI-driven security and smart city solutions.

The first project involves the expansion of an AI Airside Management System at Taoyuan International Airport. The project will build on previous initiatives from as far back as 2016 and enhance the airport’s security and operational efficiency, reinforcing its status as a premier hub in Asia.

The second project focuses on collaborating with a leading telecom company to expand core network investigation systems for a national law enforcement agency in Taiwan. This initiative, part of Gorilla’s Smart Policing Solutions, will deliver a standardized and compliant system to ensure that telecom infrastructure meets the stringent requirements of law enforcement agencies. This project exemplifies Gorilla’s commitment to supporting public safety through innovative technology, providing comprehensive and secure communication networks nationwide.

"These wins reflect our commitment to innovation in Artificial Intelligence and Cybersecurity and our ability to deliver solutions that meet the critical needs of our clients. We are proud to continue our work in enhancing Taiwan’s security infrastructure," said Jay Chandan, CEO of Gorilla Technology.

"These projects showcase our expertise and dedication to driving positive outcomes for our clients and the communities they serve. Gorilla Technology remains at the forefront of delivering impactful AI-based technology solutions," added Andru Chiang, VP of Business Growth Taiwan.
